November 4, 2022.

From the Principal's Office: (doucetr@lrsd.ab.ca)

Mid-semester report cards were handed out at the end of the day. For this first report card, comments were not required for teachers. If you have questions or concerns about your child's progress, please visit our website to book appointments for parent-teacher interviews. We have a parent viewer so parents can keep track of grades in real-time. Visit the site listed at the bottom of the report cards or scan the QR code to the right, which will take you to the site. While the program doesn't have an app, we will continue to advocate for making the site more mobile-friendly.

We are still looking for a grade 7 girls basketball coach, and we are still looking for a jr. boys basketball coach. Contact the school or Brent Gammie if you can volunteer some time with these teams.

From the Learning Support Desk:

Welcome to November! It reminds me of northern Alberta; we would skip the fall season and jump into winter! With this reminder, students must come to school dressed for the weather. With the storm earlier this week, the feeling of students being safe in travel and school will help foster an optimal learning environment. Stay safe, and reach out if you need anything.
